

INFOCUS LAND MANAGEMENT ABORIGINAL / INDIGENOUS SERVICES

Land is central to the life and well-being of Aboriginal/ Indigenous Peoples who have managed the lands and waterways for thousands of years in North America. Land provides an economic base, underpins Aboriginal/ Indigenous history, innovation and culture. It is fundamental to our spiritual beliefs. Now that Canada has signed onto the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (UNDRIP), it is imperative that industry also embraces the spirit of this agreement.

Infocus Land Management recognizes and honours Aboriginal/ Indigenous Peoples' close relationship with the land and the environment. We are committed to socially responsible operations and involvement in the communities where we live and work.

We are committed to forthright and sincere consultation with Aboriginal/ Indigenous People and communities about projects and operations that may have an impact upon their legally and constitutionally protected rights.

As an Aboriginal/ Indigenous controlled and inclusive corporation, Infocus is dedicated to garnering, investing, and nurturing our relationships with other Aboriginal/ Indigenous communities across North America.

Our employment and training goals seek to improve and enhance our workforce by priority hiring the best and brightest Aboriginal/ Indigenous people where they live and work.

Basic services include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Negotiation and consultation
- Aboriginal/ Indigenous relations
- Land agents and representatives
- Construction monitoring
- Field management and supervision
- Right of way patrol and monitoring

Given our versatility, we have the ability to offer custom Aboriginal/ Indigenous land management service packages regardless of the identified need, location or size of project. To keep costs as low as possible we encourage our clients to bundle services.

Infocus guarantees to work to ensure the highest quality service standard at the lowest cost possible. Please contact us to learn more about our services and how we can help you and your organization.
